2. Name of Applicant: Mr. Rajesh Sharma

Name of Respondent: State of Maharashtra

3. Case Details: FIR No. 112/2023

4. Background and Facts:

The applicant, Mr. Rajesh Sharma, stands accused of forging documents to obtain a bank loan fraudulently. It is alleged that he falsified the PAN card, Aadhaar card, and salary documents of Mr. Sunil Desai to secure a personal loan from XYZ Bank, Pune. The investigation conducted revealed evidence of tampering and duplication in the submitted documents.

5. Grounds for Bail:

a. The applicant has no prior criminal record and has cooperated fully with the investigating authorities.

b. There is no risk of the applicant fleeing from justice as he is a permanent resident of Pune and has strong ties to the community.

c. The applicant is willing to abide by any conditions imposed by the court for his release on bail.

6. Legal Arguments with IPC Sections:

The charges leveled against the applicant fall under the following sections of the Indian Penal Code:

a. IPC 420 - Cheating and dishonestly inducing delivery of property

b. IPC 465 - Punishment for forgery

c. IPC 467 - Forgery of valuable security, will, etc.

d. IPC 468 - Forgery for the purpose of cheating

e. IPC 471 - Using a forged document as genuine

f. IPC 120B - Criminal conspiracy

The applicant asserts that he is entitled to bail as the allegations are yet to be proven in a court of law, and there is no immediate threat or danger posed by his release on bail.

7. Prayer:

In light of the above grounds and legal arguments, the applicant respectfully prays for bail to be granted, subject to such terms and conditions as deemed fit by this Honorable Court.
