

Bail Rejection Order

In the Court of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Pune

*Case No.: 112/2023

*Date of Order: [Insert Date]

*Name of the Accused: Mr. Rajesh Sharma

*Father's Name: Ramesh Sharma

*Address: Flat No. 204, Green Residency, Pune

*Name of the Complainant: Mr. Sunil Desai

*Nature of Crime: Forgery and cheating to obtain a bank loan fraudulently.

Summary of Facts:

Mr. Rajesh Sharma is accused of forging the PAN card, Aadhaar card, and salary documents of Mr. Sunil Desai to fraudulently secure a personal loan of Rs. 5,00,000 from XYZ Bank, Pune. The investigation revealed the use of falsified documents and impersonation, with forensic document analysis confirming tampering and duplication.

Grounds for Rejection:

Considering the serious nature of the alleged crimes, including forgery and cheating, there is a substantial risk that the accused, if released on bail, may tamper with evidence, influence witnesses, or commit further offenses. The accused's involvement in a criminal conspiracy as per IPC 120B further necessitates the denial of bail to prevent potential harm to the investigation and the public interest.

Applicable IPC Sections or Case Law:

- IPC 420 - Cheating and dishonestly inducing delivery of property
- IPC 465 - Punishment for forgery
- IPC 467 - Forgery of valuable security, will, etc.
- IPC 468 - Forgery for the purpose of cheating
- IPC 471 - Using a forged document as genuine
- IPC 120B - Criminal conspiracy

Conclusion:

In light of the seriousness of the charges, the risks associated with releasing the accused on bail, and the need to ensure the integrity of the ongoing investigation, the bail application of Mr. Rajesh Sharma is hereby rejected.
